General

This presentation contains proprietary non-public information regarding Xcyte Digital Corp. ("Xcyte" or the "Company") and is furnished on a confidential basis. This presentation is for information purposes only and does not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy securities of the Company. The information contained herein has been prepared for the purpose of providing interested parties with general information to assist them in their evaluation of the Company.

No representation or warranty, express or implied, is made by the Company as to the fairness, accuracy, completeness or correctness of such information or any other written or oral communication transmitted or made available to a reader of this presentation. Nothing contained in the presentation is, or shall be relied upon as, a promise or representation, whether as to the past or the future performance of the Company.

The currency throughout this presentation is Canadian dollars (CAD $) unless otherwise stated.

Forward-Looking Information

This presentation contains "forward-looking information" or "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of applicable securities legislation (collectively, "forward-looking statements"). Forward-looking statements are included to provide information about management's current expectations and plans that allows readers to get a better understanding of the Company's operating environment, business operations and financial performance and condition. Any statements that express or involve discussions with respect to predictions, expectations, beliefs, plans, projections, objectives, assumptions or future events or performance (often, but not always, identified by words or phrases such as "expects", "is expected", "anticipates", "believes", "plans", "projects", "estimates", "assumes", "intends", "strategy", "goals", "objectives", "potential", "possible" or variations thereof or stating that certain actions, events, conditions or results "may", "could", "would", "should", "might" or "will" be taken, occur or be achieved (or the negative of any of these terms and similar expressions)) are not statements of fact and may be forward-looking statements.

Forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements regarding: the Company's goals, objectives or plans; the Company's business operations, strategy and product advantage; the Company's expectations regarding its revenues, expenses and operations; the Company's strategic initiatives; the Company's product offerings and delivery channels, including the Company's plans for and timing of the expansion of its products and services; the Company's anticipated capital requirements and the Company's ability to secure sufficient capital; anticipated transactions and the terms and timing for completion thereof; the integration of any future acquisitions by the Company; the Company's ability to attract new partners, vendors and customers and develop and maintain relationships with existing partners, vendors and customers; and the acceptance by the Company's customers and the marketplace of new technologies and solutions.

Forward-looking statements are based upon a number of factors and assumptions that, if untrue, could cause actual results, performance or achievements to be materially different from future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such statements. Some of the material factors or assumptions used to develop forward-looking statements include, without limitation, expected growth, results of operations, business prospects, economic factors and the industry generally.

Forward-looking statements are subject to a variety of known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause actual events or results to differ from those expressed or implied. There can be no assurance that such statements will prove to be accurate, as actual results and future events could differ materially from those anticipated in such statements. Certain important factors that could cause actual results, performance or achievements to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements include, among others: the duration and impact of the COVID-19 pandemic; the Company's ability to attract new customers; risk of customer loan defaults; reliance on strategic partnerships and third party service providers; availability and cost of capital; changes in equity markets; negative economic conditions; interest rate fluctuations and tight credit markets; regulation and compliance; competition; cybersecurity risks; dependence on key personnel, the Company's ability to complete and successfully integrate acquisitions; and other risks associated with executing the Company's objectives and strategies.

This list is not exhaustive of the factors that may affect any of the Company's forward-looking statements. Although the Company believes its expectations are based upon reasonable assumptions and have attempted to identify important factors that could cause actual actions, events or results to differ materially from those described in forward-looking statements, there may be other factors that cause actions, events or results not to be as anticipated, estimated or intended.

Readers are cautioned not to put undue reliance on forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements contained herein are made as of the date of this presentation and, accordingly, are subject to change after such date. The Company disclaims any intent or obligation to update or otherwise revise any forward-looking statements or the foregoing list of assumptions or factors, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except in accordance with applicable laws.

Events Sector 2023 and Beyond

The restrictions due to the pandemic awakened companies to the benefits of virtual events, the low customer acquisition costs, and increased engagement associated with it.

Many of the Fortune 1000 companies have planned to increase use of virtual events as well as transition into metaverse (VRE) events due to the many realizable benefits.

	1 Cost Effective	2 Convenience	3 Increased Engagement	4 Greater Reach
Metaverse Events	●	●	●	●
Virtual Events	●	●	●	●

- 1 ✓ Attendees don't have to pay for travel and accommodation. Organizers don't have to pay for venue rental, catering, and other physical event expenses.
- 2 ✓ More convenient option for people who may be geographically dispersed or who have busy schedules.
- 3 ✓ More interactive and engaging experience for attendees, as they can participate in live polls, Q&A sessions, and networking opportunities.
- 4 ✓ Larger audiences as virtual events in the Metaverse can scale to millions of attendees from anywhere in the world.
